

Water

The wells

- The wells which are in the properties owned by the local councils and which have been handed over to the local councils on private lands for the welfare of the people are known as local council wells.
- Maintenance and repairs are done through the local council.

Provision of water service

- We provide water boiler service within the city limits or outside the city limits.
- Potable water and non-potable water are available at the request of the applicant.